

The International Scientific Conference

Norway-Ukraine: the dialogue of the cultures. Genesis.

Zhytomyr 27 April 2018

The conference will take place in the context of the II International Event of the Ukrainian Edvard Grieg Society on the basis of the Victor Kosenko Zhytomyr Music College.

The main themes of the conference:

- Slavic and Scandinavian ancient cultures;
- folk traditions of Norway and Ukraine;
- formation of the national culture and the language of these countries;
- national elements in the professional music art of Norwegian and Ukrainian composers;
- elements of Ukrainian and Norwegian folklore in foreign arts;
- outstanding folklorists from Norway and Ukraine;
- folk traditions in the culture of our time;
- neo-folkloristic tendencies in musical practice of the XX-XXI centuries

The time limit:

- key presentation – 20 minutes
- report – 12 minutes
- message – 7 minutes

The conference languages: English, Ukrainian, Russian

Application deadline: 1 March 2018.

The application should include:

- Personal data (full name, science degree, affiliation, city and country)
- Title and type of paper (report or message)
- Information about required technical equipment (e.g. projector, laptop, piano)

ATTENTION! As soon as your participation has been confirmed by 1 April, you will have to send the text of the paper in the language of the presentation and the translation of the Ukrainian or Russian original into English (complete or abstracts by the discretion of the author) to be able to print the materials in time and prepare high-quality simultaneous interpretation during the conference.

Please feel free to contact us for more information about conference, as well as for any suggestions and questions concerned your travel and stay in Zhytomyr:

E-mail: ukrainiangriegsociety@gmail.com

Phone, Viber: +38(093)424-57-32; +38(097)97-41-345.

Best regards,

Liubov Syniak

President of the UaGS